

Different Types of Sentences

Aim

Learn how to use sentences with different forms: statement, question, exclamation, command.

Types of Sentence

There are 4 types of sentence...

statement

command

question

exclamation

Statement

A statement is a sentence that simply tells the reader something.

The dog was growling.

Photo courtesy of _tar0_ (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Question

Ask a question. Use a question mark ? At the end of a sentence to show that you are asking a question.

Why is your bedroom so messy?

Photo courtesy of EvelynGiggles (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Command

A command is when you are telling someone to do something. Commands usually start with a verb.

Go and brush your teeth!

Photo courtesy of meddygamet (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Exclamation

An exclamation must be introduced by a phrase with 'what' or 'how' and should be followed by a subject + verb + any other elements.

How exciting the zoo is!

