

Purple penguins

Monday 15th November 2021 This week's homework is Literacy and is carrying on with our fairy-tale topic. Can you create your very own fairy-tale character and draw a picture. Can you then write a character description about what they look like and what kind of character they are?

The page features a decorative border of colorful illustrations including fairies, witches, and magical wands. The central area is filled with ten sets of horizontal lines for writing, each set consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

This week's homework is Literacy and is carrying on with our fairy-tale topic. Can you draw a fairy-tale character of your choice and write a few sentences describing what they look like and what type of character they are?

The worksheet is designed for a literacy homework assignment. It features a central writing area with ten horizontal lines. The writing area is framed by a decorative border of repeating icons: a blue star on a wand, a fairy with yellow wings and a blue dress, a fairy with pink wings and a pink dress, and a purple swirl with two blue stars. The icons are arranged in a grid-like pattern around the writing lines.
